Who we are

BPI is a privately owned company specializing in trading dairy and meat products from all continents - to customers all over the world.

COWPOW - the Dairy World of BPI

With departments and agents in key markets we have the local presence necessary to ensure access to the right quantities – at the right prices.

For us at BPI, trading is not merely a matter of buying and selling goods at the most competitive prices.

The key to our success is flexibility; the ability to adapt to the specific needs of our customers.

We are specialized in selling products to manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and distributors.

No matter whether you are buying private label or our own brand “CowPow” we guarantee products according to international standards, at the right prices – every single time.

Long term trading relations are not built overnight – it is a matter of earning and honouring the trust you put in us.

We look forward to doing business together
